NEW FOR FALL 2013

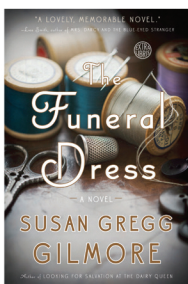

Book clubs and voracious readers looking to immerse themselves more fully in some of their favorite authors and stories need look no further than Extra Libris—a new paperback program from Broadway Books and Hogarth.

THE DINNER by Herman Koch
978-0-385-34685-6 — Hogarth — 10/29/2013
Reader's Guide • Q&A • Recommended Reading

An internationally bestselling phenomenon: the darkly suspenseful, highly controversial tale of two families struggling to make the hardest decision of their lives—all over the course of one meal.

"A European Gone Girl."—The Wall Street Journal

THE FUNERAL DRESS by Susan Gregg Gilmore*
978-0-307-88621-7 — Broadway — 9/3/2013
Reader's Guide • Essay by Susan Gregg Gilmore • Meet the Author

In a moving tale exploring Southern spirit and camaraderie among working women, a young mother will compel a town to become a community.

"[A] rare book which is not only a book club natural and a page-turning 'great read,' but a stunning, serious literary work which ought to be up for every award out there."

—Lee Smith, author of Mrs. Darcy and the Blue-Eyed Stranger

RAISING MY RAINBOW by Lori Duron*
978-0-7704-3772-5 — Broadway — 9/3/2013
Reader's Guide • Essay by Lori Duron • Meet the Author

Raising My Rainbow is the unforgettable story of Lori Duron's wonderful family as they navigate the often challenging but never dull privilege and adventure of raising a gender-creative, totally fabulous son.

"For readers everywhere who seek the courage to stand up for the ones they love. Fierce, wise, and illuminating."—Jennifer Finney Boylan, author of She's Not There and Stuck in the Middle with You

SATURDAY NIGHT WIDOWS by Becky Aikman*

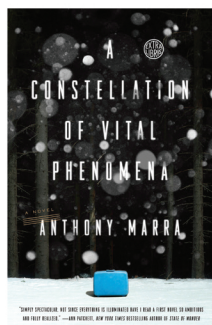

978-0-307-59044-2 — Broadway — 1/14/2014

Reader's Guide • Q&A • Essay by Becky Aikman

In her forties—a widow, too young, too modern to accept the role—Becky Aikman struggled to make sense of her place in an altered world. In this transcendent and infectious wise memoir, she—along with a group of five other young widows—explores surprising new discoveries about how people experience grief and transcend loss. Together, these friends summon the humor, resilience, and striving spirit essential for anyone overcoming adversity.

“Their stories of loss are touching, and the wisdom they gain is a testament to the durability of the human spirit.”—People

“A flash in the heavens that makes you look up and believe in miracles.”—Ron Charles, Washington Post

A WNBA GREAT GROUP READS 2013 SELECTION

EXECUTION OF NOA P. SINGLETON by Elizabeth L. Silver*

978-0-385-34745-7 — Broadway — 3/11/2014

Reader's Guide • Q&A • Essay by Elizabeth L. Silver

Noa P. Singleton never spoke a word in her own defense throughout a brief trial that ended with a jury finding her guilty of first-degree murder. Ten years later she is visited by a high-powered Philadelphia attorney who is also the mother of the woman Noa was imprisoned for killing. Inextricably linked by murder but with very different goals, these two women confront the best and worst of what makes us human in this haunting tale of love, anguish, and deception.

“A rare thriller that will be equally appealing for beach reading or book club discussion . . . riveting legal drama.”

—BookPage: 10 Notable Books for June
