Kristina Riggle lives and writes in West Michigan. Her debut novel, Real Life & Liars, was praised by Publishers Weekly for its "humorous and humane storytelling" and by Booklist as "a moving and accomplished first novel." Real Life & Liars is set in Charlevoix, Michigan, a town close to Kristina's heart as the home of her grandparents where she has visited often over the years. Her second novel, The Life you've imagined, is set in the fictional town of Haven, Michigan, inspired by Grand Haven and similar small towns along the southern Lake Michigan shore.

Katrina Kittle was born in Illinois but has lived in the Dayton area since first grade. She is the author of Traveling Light, Two Truths and a Lie, and The Kindness of Strangers, and the newly released The Blessings of the Animals. The Kindness of Strangers was BookSense pick and the winner of the 2006 Great Lakes Book Award for Fiction. Early chapters from that novel earned her grants from both the Ohio Arts Council and Culture Works.
